HUZUR SECRETARY MYSORE

The Palace,
Mysore, 6th July 1950.

Dear Sir,

With reference to your letter No.206 CB dated the 3rd April 1950, on the subject of making a distinction between the journeys made on Palace duty and journeys made on Government duty by officers of Government borne on the staff of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore for the purpose of debiting their T.A. to different heads, I am desired to state that such a distinction would be difficult to make and rather impracticable, and to request that the T.A. for all journeys performed by officers attached to the Staff of His Highness (when such journeys are performed under orders of His Highness) may kindly be permitted to be charged to one and the same head, which now will be XII General Administration, I - Allowances to Rajpramukh - T.A. to Officers.
